Internet Connection

S: They live across the world from each other, but that didn't stop these two youtubers from falling for each other.

A/N: I've been seeing this youtube thing a lot where Hiccstrid are some famous youtubers, and I thought it would be fun. So, here we go! Most these chapters will most likely end in a "Video". **

Hey, I am also looking for someone to beta for me. So if anyone is interested, just let me know! **

Chapter One

Astrid stared at her computer screen, her face resting in her hand, head tilted, and a smile on her face. She was currently on skype with her boyfriend, Henry "Hiccup", or known on youtube (and really every other social networking site out there) _hiccuphorrendous. _

It was Toothless's fault that Astrid even found him. He had just posted a video and it _happened _to pop up in her suggested videos, and Toothless just looked too cute to avoid.

Astrid laughed just thinking about the video. _Shit my cat does. _It was a video mostly all about Toothless and the weird things that black cat does, but there had also been some clips of Hiccup filming one of his other videos and Toothless interrupting. The minute she had seen Hiccup's face and heard that voice, she knew she had to watch his other videos.

She was attached. She spent an embarrassing about of time on his channel watching his videos. Astrid had taken it upon herself to message him and let him know how great she thinks he is. She wasn't _expecting _him to answer, he does have a lot of subscribers. He probably gets this all the time. He answered her though, and she had never felt so excited.

_Fangirled. _Astrid _fangirled. _She may or may not have kept the message.

"_I'm just going to go ahead and admit now that you're AMAZING. I'm not going to lie, I might have gotten a LITTLE excited over the message. You're my favorite, and I can't believe you've watched my videos!" _

It was cheesy, but it was enough to get them talking. They exchanged numbers, and talked all night. Three months later, they were making it official. They skype and talk on the phone everyday, and although it's long distance, they're happy.

"Milady."

Hiccup's voice brought Astrid out of her thoughts. She shook her head and looked at Hiccup "Yeah babe?"

Hiccup spun a bit in his chair, Toothless sitting in his lap. "Are you planning on going to VidCon?"

Astrid raised an eyebrow, nodding her head "Well, yeah. I've gone the past three years. I can't let the fans down, Hiccup! Are you?"

"Yes! Yeah!"

Hiccup's smile grew, and Astrid's heart leapt. How could this possibly happen when she hasn't even met him yet? Meet him. _MEET HIM. _That's what he's trying to get to! Astrid wouldn't have been able to explain how excited she was to _finally _meet him "Hiccup! Babe, we'll get to meet!"

"Yeah!"

"Please tell me Toothless will be there, too."

Hiccup snorted, lifting Toothless off his lap "I guess he can come. I don't know if he's deserving enough."

Astrid rolled her eyes with a laugh "Toothless is definitely deserving! I have to thank him for leading me to your channel."

Toothless let out a meow, pawing at the keyboard before Hiccup let him go "It always leads back to the cat.. What about Stormfly? Will she be there?"

Astrid looked over her shoulder at her bird, Stormfly. She wasn't as well known as Toothless, but her bird had made few appearances in her owners videos.

"Of course. But they'd have to stay in the hotel."

Hiccup nodded, looking down at Toothless. He tilted his head and smiled "Toothless _needs _friends. Stormfly and him could be best friends." Astrid let out a laugh as she stood to let her bird out the cage. Hiccup raised an eyebrow, watching her "What's so funny?"

Astrid fell into her chair, Stormfly now perched on her shoulder "Just imagine it, okay? Toothless and Stormfly becoming friends, we leave them alone together, and come back and Stormfly is just riding around on Toothless's head."

Astrid let out an unladylike snort at the image in her head, causing Hiccup to smile "Hey, it could happen. He's completely harmless."

The couple fell quiet, both too caught up in their thoughts.

They were going to meet. In just a week, they were finally going to meet. After _three long months, _they were finally going to meet. The thought kept running through her head. Their fans knew the two talked. Astrid's knows that she's practically in love with the guy, but did they know that the two were actually together? That will be a surprise for both their fans.

"Can we make a video when we meet?"

Hiccup smiled at her "I was hoping so."

Astrid leaned back into her chair, staring at her boyfriend "Everyone is going to be jealous when they see us together."

Toothless walked across the keyboard, sticking his nose in the camera and meowing. Hiccup let out a laugh, grabbing his cat and nodding "Yeah. Jealous of me, because I have _you_."

Astrid stepped off the plane, taking a deep breath.

California. She was in California for VidCon, and she was only seconds away from meeting Hiccup for the first time, and she was excited. She spent four and a half hours on a plane, and she needed air and to stretch.

She pulled her phone out of her pocket and smiled down at the message: _Are you here yet? I'm getting anxious! I'm waiting for you at baggage claim. _

Astrid is tough. She's a Hofferson. She was _born _tough. But she's not even scared to admit that she was excited to finally be meeting her boyfriend. She doesn't care if her best friend is going to think she looks weak.

She quickened her steps wanting to get to Hiccup as fast as she could. She hates acting like a girl. Anyone who knows her _knows _she hates acting like a girl. Hiccup especially knows, and doesn't seem to care about it at all.

Astrid stopped when she saw the baggage claim. Her heartbeat sped up. Is this what being nervous feels like? She wouldn't know. She's never been nervous a day in her life. She let her eyes scan the people, looking for him.

When her eyes finally landed on her, she couldn't keep the smile off her face as she started walking towards him.

This was the moment both of them had been waiting for for three months.

"Gods, this better be worth it."

Hiccup turned right as she got through the crowd of people. That smile that Astrid grew to love took over his face the minute his eyes landed on her.

The minute the two reached other, Hiccup was pulling her to hm. Astrid let out a laugh, wrapping her arms around his waist.

"Is this really happening?" she asked, pulling away from him to look up at his face "Like.. Is this real life?"

Hiccup laughed, taking his arms away from Astrid and motioning for her to get her bags.

Astrid grabbed her bags, and turned to Hiccup who was now holding Stormfly's cage and looking inside at the bird. He smiled when she sqwuaked at him "Well hey Stormfly. Toothless will love you."

Astrid swung her bag over her shoulder and smiled at him and her bird. She could already tell this was going to be a good few days.

"_Hello all you people watching this!_" Astrid gave a wave to the camera before shooting Hiccup, who was sitting out of view of the camera, a sideways smile "_Today I have someone with me that most of you know, HiccupHorrendous!_"

She grabbed his arm, pulling him in to view of the camera. He gave all her fans a smile and a wave "_Hey all of Astrid's followers! And I guess fellow mutual followers._"

Astrid smiled, pulling her legs up into the chair and reaching towards Hiccup's hand "_So, most of you have been curious or had your suspicions that something was going on between Hen â€“ Hiccup â€“ and I. It started as strictly friendship, but it quickly led to more._"

Hiccup stared down at his and Astrid's intertwined hands "_We've been dating for three months now. And before you all ask anything, this __is __the first time that we're meeting._"

Astrid nodded in agreement, pulling her hand away from Hiccup's and reaching forward "_And speaking of asking.. We decided to make our first official couple video. __The__boyfriend tag__! We also made a __how well do we know each other __video which can be found on Hiccup's channel. Don't forget to check it out! You can find a link to it below in the description." _She let out a breath, smiling down at the questions before looking over at Hiccup "_So babe, you ready?" _

"_Ready as I'll ever be, milady._"

Astrid turned in her chair, facing Hiccup "_First question, __Who __is my __best __friend?_"

Hiccup stared at her, a frown on his face. He knows this. He's met her before "_Oh Gods. What's her name? Rile -" _Astrid shook her head "_No. Not Riley. __Ruffnut__." _

"_Do I play any sports?_"

"_Soccer, track, and volleyball. You're such a little athlete._"

"_Who wears the pants in this relationship?_"

Hiccup snorts "_For __right now__, you, boss lady."_

"_Damn right. Okay, last question. What was your first impression of me?_"

Hiccup let out a laugh, smiling at her fondly "_That ones easy. I thought â€“ and still do think â€“ that you were the most beautiful girl I had ever seen. You were nice and funny, and I fall for you more each day._"

Astrid threw her notebook down, a blush taking over her face "_Yeah, it was short. Hiccup's video took up too much time because he talks a lot._" He opened his mouth to protest but she only shook her head "_If __any __of you are at VidCon tomorrow, we __will __be there. Look for us! We will be doing an actual Q and A while together, so please, tweet us or comment some questions on our videos and we'll do our best to get to them all._"

She clapped her hands together, her smile never leaving her face "_That's it for this video. The next one should be up in a few days before VidCon ends. Don't forget to look for us!" _

2. Chapter Two

This "video" in the beginning is basically based off Zoella's "How well do we know each other" videos. It's too cute. The first half of this will be their cute video, oops. **

Chapter Two

"_Youtuber's of the world, hello!" Hiccup gave the camera a wave, motioning for Astrid to join him "I have with me a very special guest, and, an amazing youtuver, Ahoff!" _

Astridl smiled at the camera, giving it a wave "Hey guys!"

_Hiccup reach forward, grabbing a piece of paper from the table and read it over before throwing it back down. He gave Astrid a smile. He glanced down before looking back at the camera "You ready, milady? I don't think you are." _

_Astrid returned his smile, leaning back in the chair and crossing her arms "Oh, I am." _

Hiccup looked back at the camera "Today, we are going to be doing a how well do we know each other video. Astrid here has a video on her channel, theboyfriendtag. Go watch it. She's too cute in it." Astrid snorted, gently punching his shoulder "Anyways! On to the questions. We'll each have five, may the best man win."

"_Astrid." she sat up straight, narrowing her eyes at him, waiting to be hit with the questions "I'll start off easy for you. What's my favorite color?" _

_Astrid laguhed, rolling her eyes "Are you kidding? You literally have worm your favorite color during every skype date and every video.. You're even wearing it now! It's green. Definitely green." _

Hiccup glanced down at his shirt and laughed "Okay, I said I was starting out easy for you. Your turn."

_Astrid cleared her throat, smiling at him "I'm not making it easy for you. In my unseen videos â€“ keep in mind followers of Hiccup's, he's the only one that has seen them â€“ I am singing to Stormfly about something. What is it?" _

_Without hesitation, Hiccup answers "Hamburgers. I clearly rememeber you singing to her about hamburgers." _

_Astrid frowned. Waving her hand to tell him to get on with it. He let out another laugh, reaching over and grabbing her hand "You're only every skyped with me, so this one might be tough. What color is my bedroom?" _

_Astrid stared at him like he had grown a second head. How in the world was she suppose to know that "Uh... Can I just take a wild guess and say green?" _

Hiccup snatched his hand away from hers and clapped his hands together "No. my room is actually this really ugly yellow color."

Astrid leaned forweard, resting her elbow on the table and her chin in her hand "How was I suppose to know? When we skype, I'm not paying attention to your walls."

"_Your turn, milady." _

Astrid sat straigh up again. She's got one that will stump him for sure "Playing dirty. Two can play at that game. How old was I when I started playing my first sport?"

Hiccup stared up at the ceiling "How is this fair? You're been playing sports your entire life, basically!"

"_This is what you get for stumping me."_

"_Okay." Hiccup sat quiet for a few seconds before looking at her "Five?" _

Astrid shook her head "Close, I was six."

"_Well played." He spun a little in his chair, thinking up his next question "What is the name of my current celebrity crush?"

_Astrid glared "Can I just be one of those obnoxious dumb girlfriends and say me?" Hiccup snorted, shaking his head "Okay.. Let's see.. You saw that movie lately... And that show.. No! It's that one girl from that one show. Pretty Little Liars. The blonde one. What's her face? Ashley Benson? I still can't believe you watch that." _

"_She's cute. My one goal in life is to meet her. Also, I only watch it because of my little sister. A guy also likes some mystery." he smiled and pointed at her "Go." _

"_What was the name of my old cat?"_

Hiccup stared down at Toothless, who was wrapping himself around their feet "I know you've told me about him. He was gray. Starts with an S.. Right. That sneaky little cat. Sneaky!"

_Astrid let out a dramatic sigh "Yeaaaah.. You're right. I was five and he stole my waffle, shut up." _

"_When I was three, what did I want to be when I got older?"

Astrid waved her hand towards the camera "I know it wasn't being youtuve famous. I also don't know it wasn't wanting to be a lawyer. Let's see... I know you want to be an engineer now, but I know that wasn't it as a kid. Hmm... Something lame, probably. Like... An astronaut?"

"_Are you kidding me, Astrid? You guess, and get it right?"_

_Astrid laughed, throwing her arms up "Yes! Have you ever even told me that before?" _

"_I don't think I ever have."_

"_My turn!" she smiled at him and then glanced at the camera "In what month of last year did I hit one million subscribers?" _

"_Oh come on, Astrid, I can't possibly know that." he ran a hand down his face, letting out a sigh "I'm just going to guess and say March."

Astrid smiled, shaking her head "No. June. You were only a few months off. Last question, go."

"_What was my favorite show as a kid?" _

"_It better have been Rugrats. What kids favorite show wasn't Rugrats?"_

He nodded, letting out a laugh "You're right. Tommy Pickles was the man. Your turn."

This one gets kind of... Gross." Astrid shrugged, letting out a laugh "He's heard the story, and if you're one of my subscribers, so have you. When I was little, I ate a food that made me throw up all over my floor as a kid, resulting in me not liking it up to this day. What food was it?"

"_Cinnamon. You always go on about how much you hate cinnamon because it makes you sick." Astrid nodded. Hiccup smiled, turning back towards the camera "Well guys, that's it for this video. We plan on doing an actual Q and A, so tweet her or me questions, or comment below. Also, we'll be at VidCon tomorrow for those of you coming. Make sure to look for us, we'll be together. See you next time!"_

Hiccup woke up before Astrid that next morning. He had his around wrapped around her waist, and a smile on his face. He didn't want to move, or let go. Waking up next to Astrid had to be the best feeling he's ever had, and he never wanted it to go away.

He wishes he could wake up next to her everyday.

Astrid sighed, rolling over and smiling at him "Good morning." she moved closer to him, closing her eyes and taking in the warmth of her boyfriend "What time is it?"

Hiccup buried his nose in Astrid's haird "It's only seven. We still have five hours before we have to go anywhere. What do you want to do?"

Astrid hummed, scooting closer to him "Preferably nothing. I would like to just go back to sleep, maybe cuddle some more."

Hiccup's hand ran up her back with a laugh "You can go back to sleep, milady." he started pulling away from her "I didn't know you were such a cuddler. I'm going to run down and get us some breakfast."

Astrid propped herself up on an elbow and watched Hiccup throw on a new shirt. She hadn't expected their first night together to go so... Perfectly. She hadn't even expected to break _that _barrier with him on their official first night together.

"What do you like? Eggs? Bacon? Toast? Biscuits?"

Astrid smiled "All of the above?"

Hiccup leaned over, quickly pecking her lips before walking towards the door "Whatever you want, M'lady."

Astrid fell back onto the bed, letting out a sigh. She was... _happy_. She knew that Hiccup made her happy, obviously, but she didn't realize spending _one _night with him could make her feel like this. She wished she could spend every day with him. Why did she have to live all the way in New York?

The pillow next to her head shifted and she looked over to see Toothless curling up on Hiccup's pillow.

She reached over, scratching the cat under his chin "You're a lucky little thing, you know that? Hiccup's amazing, and you get to live with him every day." Toothless let out a pur, rubbing against her hand "We can always trade places."

Astrid was staring up at the ceiling, one hand petting Toothless while the other reached around for her phone.

The first thing she did when she found it was go on instagram. She was the last person you would have expected to use instagram. She never posted anything. Ever. But she decided to get it again just for the sake of VidCon. She was scrolling through her newsfeed when one picture from one of her youtube subscribers stopped her.

"_Getting breakfast in my hotel and look who I ran into! But where is Astrid?" _

It was a picture of the girl with Hiccup. He had a plate of food in one hand and his free arm wrapped around the girls shoulders. He looked so tired, his hair all over the place. The girl on the other hand looked extatic to be meeting Hiccup.

She let a smile cross her face as she went to comment back. She always loved commenting on her fans things and getting them excited to see something from her. She was sure this one would drive people insane

"_Astrid is still in bed waiting on her breakfast. Someone just needs to hurry up ;)" _

Twenty minutes later, the hotel room door was pushed open. Astrid sat up, accidentally knocking a sleeping Toothless off her stomach. She's not sure when he got there, or when she had fallen asleep, but Hiccup wasn't at all quiet when he came back into the room.

"Sleeping?"

"I was." Astrid wiped her eyes with the back of her hand "But I'm glad you made it out alive with the food. I saw some of the pictures on instagram with the fans.. And the creepy ones of you _getting _the food."

Hiccup walked over to Astrid, holding out one of the plates to her. She smiled, reaching out for them. He sat down at the foot of the bed "Come again?" Astrid shoved a fork full of eggs in her mouth, reaching for her phone and finding one of the pictures that someone had taken of Hiccup putting food on the plates. He snorted, shaking his head "That's so creepy."

"But you look cute." she took another bite of her food before looking over at him "After I'm done eating, I'm going to shower." Hiccup nodded, taking a sip of juice "And you're more than welcome to join me..."

Hiccup's eyes shot over to Astrid. He raised an eyebrow, his hand freezing on his fork. Sure, they had passed _that _barrier the night before, and he was more than willing to do it again as much as she wanted, but he had no idea she would be so _forward _"You sure?"

"Positive.." she let gave him a smile "It'll help us both relax and get ready for a day full of questioning and people."

"Well," he reached over, placing his hand on the back of her neck and gently pulling her towards him "if it'll help us relax."

He pulled her into a kiss, completely forgetting their plates of food in their laps.
